

PENNSYLVANIA INTERGOVERNMENTAL COOPERATION AUTHORITY

Resolution No. 2024 - 10
March 19, 2024

WHEREAS, S. William Richter, Esquire, served with distinction as General Counsel for the Pennsylvania Intergovernmental Cooperation Authority (the “Authority”) from its inception in 1991 to 2024; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Richter has over 35 years of experience in public finance law and has worked on over 500 public finance transactions in more than 20 different states involving more than $17 billion in aggregate principal amount of debt obligations; and

WHEREAS, S. William Richter’s legacy to the City of Philadelphia (the “City”) and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can be seen in the improvement of the City’s finances since the fiscal crisis of the early 1990s, and the billions of dollars in bond proceeds and tax revenue the Authority remitted to the City during his tenure as General Counsel for the Authority;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. The board of the Authority hereby expresses its appreciation and profound gratitude for S. William Richter’s service to the Authority and the residents of the City of Philadelphia.
